☞ Job Shadow Programme 2010-11

- The Job Shadow Programme 2010-11 co-organized by the Careers Committee of King's College and the King's College Old Boys' Association had been successfully held. Nearly seventy S5 to S6 students were given opportunities to shadow our alumni and their related parties for half day to 2 days during Lunar New Year and Easter holidays. Not only do they get to observe the day-to-day activities of their hosts in the current workforce, they also get a chance to have their questions answered.

- Let's share some of their feedbacks:

"All in all, I think this programme is fantastic in establishing a stronger link between old boys and new boys, so the spirit of 'passing the torch' of King's College can be fulfilled."

Lee King Hei Kenneth (6D)

"This visit really benefits me a lot and helps me set my life goals. I hope that I could join Job Shadowing Programme again."

Lai Yam Ting (5A)

"I would like to thank our host's guidance and I totally admire his devotion to his work. It was beyond question that he showed passion in being a professor and I was inspired by his respectful working attitude."

Pun Chun Hin (5A)

"Humble but with confidence. Showed good attitude and sincerity."

Mr. Leung Cheuk Hang Oscar

"Students are smart and seem grasping techniques quickly with only little guidance."

Dr. Lee Boon Ying

"The effort of the school and students are appreciated."

Dr. Mak Wai Ping

- We would like to thank KCOBA and all renowned alumni for your generous support. This programme would not have been a success without your enthusiastic participation. You really make a difference in the life of the students!
- If you are interested to participate in this programme in the coming academic year, please do not hesitate to contact our Careers Mistress, Ms WONG Ka-wai, at elizawong@edb.gov.hk for details.

☞ The school would like to thank Mr. MA Wai Wah, Edward for his help in organizing a series of career-related experiences (including job shadowing activities, summer job placement and career forums) for our students.

☞ High-table Dinner

18 students from S2 to S6 were invited to attend the High-table Dinner of King's College Old Boys' Association on 2 July 2011 in the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club, with the aim of expanding students' horizon and enhancing their sense of belonging to the School through sharing by the guest speakers.

☞ King's College 85th Anniversary Visual Arts Exhibition

The exhibition with the theme "Made in Hong Kong" was held at the Hong Kong City Hall from 5th to 8th July 2011. We were glad to have Mr Cheung Kwok Pun and Mr Chun-ying, our alumnus, to be our Guests of Honour. For more...

☞ So Long, Farewell, It's Time To Say Goodbye.....Goodbye!

- Mr Kwong Kwok Chuen, our Physics teacher, will start his bountiful retiring life in this September after 14 years of devoted service to King's College. Surely, all of us will miss him very much!

The Golden Bond: Alma Mater and You!

Make the most of the opportunities that are available to maintain your continued connection with the School, through its alumni initiatives.

✧ Would you like to celebrate your important moments at your Alma Mater?

You could ...

- celebrate your graduation anniversary with your fellow schoolmates; or
- organize a reunion with your class.

✧ Would you like to support the work of your Alma Mater?

You could ...

- share life experience
- deliver a career talk or arrange a career visit to your company
- help with mentoring
- sponsor school events, e.g. the exchange programme, etc.

We would welcome any of your initiatives as we believe that alumni play a key role in helping King's College to climb to new heights in the ever-changing 21st Century.
